

Courtroom Accountability Project

<https://courtroomaccountabilityproject.com/>

Subject: Justice for Austin Wlazniak: A Family's Fight Against Systemic Failures

Overview:

- Austin Wlazniak was removed from his family shortly after birth based on manipulated mental health records and questionable legal procedures.
- Susan Cobleigh, his grandmother, has been fighting to expose the misconduct by Florida child welfare agencies and to regain custody.

Key Issues:

- Alleged falsification of medical records
- Improper use of the Baker Act
- Repeated due process violations
- Systemic agency failures and court misconduct

This case represents not just a personal injustice, but a broader crisis in child welfare oversight.